Beacon Rock State Park Frontcountry Rodney Falls Pool of the Winds Equestrian Trail 1.22 .87 Hardy Falls Park office Equestrian Trailhead & Campground Group Camp Campground RV campground Hadley Trailhead & Main Campground Group camp Restroom Popular Hikes and Trails Trails open 8AM-Dusk Hadley Trail Picnic shelter Backcountry camping prohibited Beacon Rock Guptil Road Restroom 1.8 miles out and back, easy to moderate, 750' gain with shower Beacon Rock trail ascends to the top of one of Picnic area the world's largest monoliths and the park's namesake. The trail is exposed, carved out of Little Beacon and built directly onto the side of the rock with 52 switchbacks. Interpretive panels explain Hamilton Mountain Trailhead Parking Rock & Lower Picnic Area the history and geology of Beacon Rock. Technical rock Rodney and Hardy Falls, climbing Pool of the Winds Upper Picnic From Hamilton Mountain Trailhead: 2.52 miles out and back ADA accessible Area moderate, 600' gain From Hadley Trailhead. Interpretive trail PIERCE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REUGE 2.92 miles out and back moderate, 400' gain Spectacular old growth at either trailhead. Hiking trail Hike through mature second growth Douglas Fir forest and with views under the power lines. Side trails lead to Hadley Falls and Pool of the Winds, Rodney Falls is along the main Bicycle trail trail at the foot bridge over Hardy Creek. Equestrian trail BEACON or facility River to Rock Trail .75 miles one way moderate, 272' gain Marina ROCK River to Rock trail is the newest trail in the park, completed in 2014, connecting the Boat launch riverfront area of the park to the Beacon Rock trail. Meander through an old filbert orchard and the shoreline of wetland Riddell Lake Boating Doetsch Walking Path 1.2 mile loop, easy PIERCE ISLAND WILDLIFE REFUGE Fishina no elevation gain Paved Doetsch Walking Path circles what was once a pasture of the Doetsch family ranch Kiteboarding along the Columbia River shoreline. Moorage Area Interpretive panels along the path explain the & Campground 2 standard campsites natural and human history of the area. Waterfall Trail - hiker only Woodward Creek Multi-use trail -RV Campground equestrian Park boundary Paved road Unimproved road Natural gas line BPA powerline OLUMBIARIVER 14 BNSF railroad Doefed Malking Salt 13. Doetsch Homestead Lake Day Use Area .25 Miles Produced by: Vivian Spidle 2015 CONTOUR INTERVAL: 200 feet

34841 State Route 14 Skamania, WA 98648

(509) 427-8265

Beacon Rock State Park

Backcountry

